Clergy: Andy Bawtree

Readers: Lynne Watson, Steve Saunderson, Margaret Bowers

We rejoice in what the Lord is doing locally in River - as we journeyed through Lent towards Easter we had almost 50 people involved in Lent groups exploring prayer. We also have a monthly time of intentional prayer for church growth. We have some wonderful Christian men and women who serve as pastoral visitors, a growing worshipping community on Tuesdays, followed by a Lunch club; spiritual and physical feeding. Local school children are bringing their parents and friends to church. There is an ongoing desire to learn more about Jesus and the Bible. God is good.

7 APRIL LISTENING AND DISCERNING: RESURRECTION HOPE

A stone-locked tomb broken open ... the presence of angels ... the light of life where there should only have been the darkness of death. Easter hope is the hope that carries us beyond the possible into the realm of the impossible; beyond our best case scenarios into a kingdom where what we receive is more than all we could ask or even imagine.

Lord Jesus, may the truth of your rising dispel once and for all the darkness of fear and the claustrophobia of hopelessness, that we might hope again.

28 APRIL LISTENING AND DISCERNING: DISRUPTIVE HOPE

Alone ... the only doubter in a room full of very convinced people ... a locked room ... and then, impossibly, Jesus is there. The events of Easter overturned Thomas's assumptions about how things work. Easter offends the status quo and unseats our rational worldview. Easter's gift to us is the hope that the way it's always been isn't necessarily the way it will always be.

Lord Jesus, may your willingness to walk through walls dispel our rigidity and resistance to change, that we might step towards your hope-filled future with courage and joy.

Pray today with the ministers and congregation of St Mary-in-Castro, Dover Castle, as we offer thanks for the enormously successful 'Celebration of Christmas' service held in a full church in December 2023 which, organised by local Rotary clubs, raised a substantial sum for the RNLI.

We give thanks that the service of meditation in Holy Week, led by the Pharos Chamber Choir, reached visitors to the Castle, as well as the public. We give thanks for the successful completion of a Memorandum of Understanding involving all relevant parties relating to the work and witness of St Mary-in-Castro within the boundaries of Dover Castle and the Diocese.

11 APRIL PRAYING TOGETHER: GIVING THANKS FOR THE HOPE OF EASTER

Father, we praise You, that as Creator of the Universe you choose to be involved in a personal relationship with us. We cannot begin to imagine all the pain and suffering Your beloved Son endured for us during those last days. You saw Him tortured and crucified and yet still, you forgive us our sins, walk with us every day and promise us life everlasting. What a blessing it is to know that as we journey through this difficult and dangerous world the victory has already been won. Jesus has risen, defeated death – and because of this our hope and future life with Him in glory can never be doubted or taken away. We humbly thank You Lord Jesus.

Amen.

14 APRIL LISTENING AND DISCERNING: RESTORING HOPE

A fruitless night of fishing ... a one-time-friend consumed with shame ... a breakfast on the beach and a gentle restoration. Hope reassures us that, like Peter, God will come to us even when we think we've made too many mistakes. In our darkest hour, love will seek us out and bring us home to ourselves and to God.

Lord Jesus, may the grace in your gaze dispel the gloom of guilt and shame, that we might find again the hope of redemption.

21 APRIL LISTENING AND DISCERNING: REORIENTING HOPE

Two friends on a journey to Emmaus ... baffled and bereft ... a surprising companion ... sharing their bread and opening their eyes. When we're quitting the scene because things haven't turned out the way we'd wanted, hope meets us and turns us around, reminding us of all we were once pursuing, reassuring us that all is not lost.

Lord Jesus, may the warmth of your presence dispel the gloom of disappointment and the heaviness of heartache, that we might remember again the hope to which we are called.
