

SUPERVISION CONTRACT

BETWEEN (Supervisor)

AND (Director of Mission and Ministry) Neville Emslie

This is the contract between the above-named supervisor and the Director of Mission and Ministry for the purpose of ministry supervision. These are the terms of the agreed contract.

The Supervisor agrees to

1. Attend the annual supervisors' full-day, in-person, training day and two one-and-a-half-hour online training sessions each year
2. Be in supervision themselves according to arrangements made by the Director of Mission and Ministry
3. Take on one supervisee initially and thereafter to have a caseload of at least two supervisees after six months, unless otherwise agreed with the Director of Mission and Ministry
4. Fulfil the contracted arrangements they enter into with their supervisees

The Director of Mission and Ministry agrees to

1. Make arrangements for the Supervisor to be in regular supervision, probably in a group. This will likely involve the Supervisor leaving any existing 1:1 supervision relationship for their ministry practice. Supervision sessions will, as a norm, occur every 6 weeks with breaks during the months of August and December.
2. If a problem arises between the supervisor and the Director of mission and Ministry, we will, if need be, appoint a mutually agreed facilitator to help us resolve the issue.
3. Be reasonably available for enquiries regarding practical and confidential matters to do with the work of pastoral supervision.
