

Romans	Pharisees	Money lenders
Who are they? Invaders of Israel.	Who are they? Religious law makers. Political rulers of Israel, who had made a 'deal' with the Romans, so that they wouldn't lose their positions of power.	Who are they? Corrupt businessmen who charged too much interest and cheated people out of their money.
Didn't like Jesus... because he might have started a rebellion. They stood to lose part of the empire. They didn't want anyone causing trouble.	Didn't like Jesus... because he pointed out their faults. They didn't believe him to be the Messiah (God's Son and Israel's Saviour)	Didn't like Jesus... because they thought that Jesus was a do-gooder. Perhaps thought that Jesus would turn the people against them.
Who are they? Invited by Israel's leaders to help run the country.	Who are they? Government employees who always tried to do their best for the country.	Who are they? Honest businessmen who always had the best interests of their customers at heart. Happy to give money away in times of crises.
Didn't like Jesus... because he was forcing them to use crucifixion as a way of controlling the population.	Didn't like Jesus... because he hadn't been to theology college, and so shouldn't have been working as a rabbi.	Didn't like Jesus... because Jesus was stopping them from helping people.
