LISTENING AND DISCERNING: COME, HOLY SPIRIT

Lord, Holy Spirit, in the beginning you were a wind that swept over the face of the waters. The first thing we learn about you is that you bring order out of confusion, and you do that by enormous dynamism and energy. Your wind swept. As we turn our minds and hearts to you, Lord, clear the detritus from our lives, those inconsequential things that turn our attention from mercy, truth, and love. Those sticky adhesions that forbid us from following Jesus with grace and alacrity. Your wind affected the face of the waters, the deep and dark waters. As we pray, we are conscious of wider turmoil, every media splurges news of unrest, and photos of distressed faces in many parts of the earth you created. Lord, Holy Spirit, unrest our hearts of complacency and blow within us desire to pray, help and give, enable us to be agents of peace. Amen.

PRAYING TOGETHER: FOR THE MINISTRY OF STREET PASTORS

Dear Lord God, we humbly ask for your help to see and notice those who are often invisible in our communities. We pray for the homeless, the lost, and the vulnerable who may feel forgotten and voiceless. May we have the compassion and courage to acknowledge and assist those who need our help. Please guide us to see with your eyes and never miss those who cry out for assistance. We stand as a united community to support those in need and ask for new volunteers, team members, and Prayer Pastors to join our efforts in helping those who are struggling.

LISTENING AND DISCERNING: SPREADING THE GOOD NEWS

Lord, Holy Spirit, at Jesus's baptism you descended like a dove on him. We are not sure whether everyone saw you, nor understood the dove to be you. Yet that quiet moment changed lives, his, those at the river who did see, and ours now as we pray. We have not seen you since the days of Noah. On the first flight, you found no place to rest, so you returned to the ark. On the second you found a freshly plucked olive leaf, a sign of new life. And your third flight has stretched for centuries and centuries until you settle on the Saviour of the world. You have been flying for such a long time, but now you rest on Jesus, and as his Spirit on us. You alight gently, so from this moment we become agents of Christ, announcing the good news of life in him. Amen.

THANINGTON: ST NICHOLAS & ST FAITH

Clergy: Nick White

Assistant Curate: Christa Claire Brodie-Levinsohn

Please pray for two new worshipping communities in Thanington.

We launched Messy Church last September. Many local families have come. But meeting monthly has its limitations. So in April we took the plunge and added Thanington Family Worship. There's now a gathering every Sunday at 4pm for families to go deeper with one another and with God.

When a new care home opened in Thanington last year, we were invited to offer a monthly church service. It's really appreciated by the residents. For many, it's their only connection with church.

Please pray for the staff and volunteers involved in these ministries and for those who are encountering God for the first time, or coming back to faith, through these different expressions of church.

The Cathedral is trying to find more opportunities to connect more in witness and service. Please pray for us as we discern our vision, values and strategic plan. We want to develop our musical outreach through local schools and partner more with the diocesan Social Justice Network. We face financial challenges with fewer visitors, Covid loan repayments and a lack of understanding that we fund ourselves. We need wisdom about how to develop our on-line activity. Finally, we long to find better ways to care for our congregations as well as our staff, volunteers, visitors and pilgrims.

LISTENING AND DISCERNING: GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT

Lord Holy Spirit, on the day of Pentecost you came like the rush of a violent wind. In that hubbub more noise was added as people began to speak in other languages, what a cacophony that must have been. And yet outsiders heard their own languages spoken, about God's deeds of power. This Pentecost give us the gifts and abilities to speak of you to those who are different to us. In a world fractured by all kinds of definitions and distinctions grant us the grace and compassion to speak across human divides to all humanity, especially to the lowly and the hungry and to those with little power. We breathe in deeply to pray: Enable us to put aside our deep prejudices to hear your voice to us through unexpected people, those different to us. Holy Spirit, help us to see everyone as children of God, for you love us all. Amen.

NONINGTON: THE LIVING WELL

Chaplain of The Living Well: Lorraine Apps-Huggins

Assistant Chaplains: Hilary Hills, Ray Horton, Helen Jones

The Living Well continues to flourish as new Core Team members Helen and Martin settle into the roles of assistant chaplain and warden respectively. The hopes to which we all aspire of being a welcoming place and a people who provide a sanctuary and a haven of peace for others are being met in the comments of our returning guests - for all of this we thank God - for it is His presence that reassures us and brings the Spirit of God close in...

We pray for our future: the building, grounds, finances, and all that we believe is possible within the goodness of God for our guests. Some of whom simply seek quietude, others who seek distinct healing; body mind and/or spirit, and some who find they are synonymous!

(This photo is of Hugh Norton who gifted us the painting - hanging behind him - it was painted specially by Hugh's friend Ela, and looks beautiful in our newly decorated chapel. The painting is entitled 'God's Spring Garden'.)

Loving God,

In whose image we are created, we give thanks for Your everlasting love.

We rejoice today as we celebrate those being ordained as they stand at the threshold of their new lives of ministry ahead, preparing for all that You call them to be and do in Your name.

We give thanks to You for their commitment through discernment, their diligence in following Your guidance and ability to thrive under Your gracious blessing, as they aspire to put in order all that You have planned for them.

May they be strengthened by Your example, emboldened to use the gifts You have generously given them so they may courageously extend and enrich the body of Christ.

From their very first call to this day of special days, thank You for Your leading light, grace and love for each of them as they continue on this path of discernment to fulfil Your holy work. May they be filled with strength, grace and fortitude to guide Your people.

Please enable them to care for Your people by encouraging them in their faith, support those in need, share in the privilege of blessing others and bring everyone closer to You.

We ask this in Jesus' name and give thanks for your divine blessings.

Amen.

Please pray also for their families, friends, the many who support them, the communities where they will serve, their Training Incumbents and all those who will continue to support them through the coming years.

We give thanks for the wondrous gift of vocations to all areas of ministry as we are formed and grown by God together.

In particular, please pray for those who will be ordained in Canterbury Cathedral today;

Hilary Baldwin, Stephen Brown, Jayne Edinboro, Robin Fassenfelt, Norman Gilliland

Paul Henderson, Steven Horne, Beth Keenan, Barbara Lewis, Bill Mills, Denise Parrett, Daniel Ralph, Clary Read, Jess Rodewald, Malcolm Sawyer, Maria Stuttaford

Lord, Holy Spirit, the Son of Man told your servant John to write, 'Let anyone who has an ear listen to what You are saying to the churches.' Ah, we say, you are at it again, asking us to listen. We find this hard, like a stretching exercise that at first is painful. And yet, we stretch, hold, and push again to find we move a bit more. So now we listen, hold, attend a bit more, and we become more conscious of your word to us. We listen... We hold... We attend... Help us Holy Spirit to really listen... In the depths we feel we are hearing you. We shall find someone today to talk about what we are hearing, someone else who also has an ear. We sense you are building your church as we listen. Amen.

THE WONDER OF PRAYER

PENTECOST – OPEN TO THE SPIRIT

‘... how much more will your Father in Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?’ (Luke 11:13, NIV)

Spirit of peace and freedom -

- Help us to open ourselves to you, that our lives might become your landing-place.
- May our children and young people lead the way in showing us how to welcome your presence.
- Rest on all who feel trapped in poverty and lack.
- Hover over the chaos of the Middle East and teach the warring parties how to work for creative peace.
- Brood over your church, we pray, and bring forth in us new life.

Spirit of the Living God,
You come to us with gentle grace.
We offer you open hearts and open hands,
Ready to welcome you,
Eager to share you,
Awe-struck at the privilege of becoming your dwelling-place.
Amen.

The dove is one of the most familiar symbols of the Holy Spirit. As you reflect on the image on this card, what thoughts/feelings surface. What does it say to you about the Holy Spirit, and about you?
